Dear Friends

Firstly, I want to thank you for your amazing generosity, expressed in the wonderful Easter Offering which I have received. I did not expect this at all, as I was with you for a short period of four months - but I receive it gratefully, and humbly, as a token of your love. It is such a blessing.

It is likely that I will see you, every now and again, as Anastasia has asked whether I will be available to assist, occasionally, when she is not able to take Services on Sundays and Wednesdays. I said that I would be very happy to do that - and will look forward to those opportunities to 're-connect' with you! As I have said, I really enjoyed being with you, and felt that I was able to make a real contribution to the life of All Saints. I also feel very blessed to have met you, and grown to know some of you, to some extent. You are wonderful people, and I believe there are very good things in store for you.

Some of you have asked what I am going to be up to, now that I have re-embraced retirement: I shall try to sort about 36 years of sermons, continue doing craftwork, go away on holiday (when we have the opportunity) and, generally, enjoy life! Gill and I enjoy going to movies and concerts; we have joined the University of the Third Age, and try to go to monthly talks; we do some babysitting of grandchildren - and we need to get back to regular walking, so we are ensuring proper exercise! I am never bored, or at a loss to know what to do. And it will be great to sit in the pew, with Gill, for a change, on Sundays at St Francis, Parkview.

As I said on Wednesday morning, at the 09h30 Service at All Saints: I wish you grace and peace; I will thank my God every time I remember you; I am confident that He Who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus; I will hold you in my heart; I will look forward to hearing of, and seeing, your progress and joy in the faith; I shall think of you, and pray for you, with great affection.

You are all Saints, called to believe in, follow and serve Jesus; may your love abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ; continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling; shine like stars in the universe as you hold out the word of life; rejoice in the Lord, always; let your gentleness be evident to all; do not be anxious about anything but, always, pray about everything, with thanksgiving; concentrate on all that is true, noble, right, pure, lovely, admirable, excellent, praiseworthy; you can do everything, through Him Who gives you strength; God will meet all your needs, according to His glorious riches in Christ Jesus. (All of this is inspired by Paul's wonderful letter to the Philippians.)

With much love
Nigel
