Fifth Sunday in Lent

We welcome all who are worshipping with us today to our service,
particularly our newcomers and visitors,
may God bless your encounter with Him.

Collect for Today

Eternal Father,

Your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ fulfilled your will
By taking our nature and giving his life for us:
Help us to follow the example of his humility
By walking in the way of the cross;
Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God, now and forever. Amen

Some parishioners have just realised that the 12 month period has lapsed and DG's automatically stopped coming off Also, if you would like envelopes for DG please let the office know. Thanks.
- Parish Planning Day : Provisional Date : 4th May from 09h00 – 12h30, followed by braai (details still to be confirmed). Please let the office know if you are able to attend and all suggestions can be put in the PL. Please see the noticeboard for more details.

- At the beginning of May we are going to launch a fundraiser by handing out a "Time and Talent" tin to each Parish Family or youth member. The tin will contain a R5 coin and the object is to use your talents to make the R5 multiply (sewing, baking, etc) and selling what you make at Church or to friends and family, at work or at school. Cheryl Donaldson and Nadene Twidale will be overseeing and facilitating this initiative and will arrange for facilities to be provided for you to sell your goodies on the last Sunday of each month, and will guide you in implementing your ideas. Tins will be collected at the end of November and all funds raised will go to the Parish. Contact Nadene (082 651 2999) or Cheryl (083 472 1107) for more info.
- Monthly Maintenance Meetings : Meetings take place on 2nd Saturday of every month. If you would like to get involved or require more information on how you can help, speak to Thabiso or contact the office. Everyone is invited.

Dear Friends

Last week it was confirmed that someone else will be coming to this Parish as from 5th May, presumably as Priest-in-Charge, probably until the end of the year. It is too soon to announce who it is (unless there has been a meeting of the person concerned, plus the Wardens, plus the Archdeacon, in the last four days). Details will follow, imminently, I am sure. I have every confidence that she will be a great blessing to you, and you to her. She is a very warm, gifted, competent person. I am delighted that she will lead you into the next phase of community life at All Saints, and I am sure you will be very happy, and prosper. (Last Sunday's sermon: "Forget the former things..... I am doing a new thing" - words spoken by God, through the prophet Isaiah, in Isaiah 43.) People are speaking about signs that something new is beginning here - I have been very blessed to have been part of this 'birthing'.

Of course, this means I will be finishing up at the end of April. I will be sad to say goodbye, because I have enjoyed being here, and have grown to love you, in my short stay. It has been, for me, short and sweet - I hope that it has been 'sweet' for you! Originally, I was asked to be here for two to three months; then it was extended to four. Although I shall miss you, it will be good to be 'retired' again - to worship with Gill, my wife, at St Francis, Parkview, and to see what God has in store for us, next. Perhaps we will visit, occasionally. And it might be that I am needed to relieve your new priest, when she is on leave, or going to be away, for some other reason....

I say, again: you have a wonderful church building, and some excellent facilities; you have beautiful grounds; you have lovely people. I am so excited that, through the exceptional generosity of parishioners, the kitchen is going to be revamped. And electricity meters are being installed. And we might, soon, have new projectors, properly installed. These are signs of life, growth, hope, motivation....

Please, I beg you, don't let thousands of books accumulate at the back of the church again, gathering dust, and becoming untidy! Make sure the church is clean, tidy, attractive to newcomers and visitors, fresh, bright, and sparkling! Get the notice-boards updated and interesting. Take responsibility for some little thing in the life of the church, so you are doing your bit. Be excited, be happy, be full of hope. I hope the next week will be a very meaningful time for all of us, as we remember the events of the last days of Jesus amongst His disciples, before His death and resurrection.

God loves you - and so do I!

Nigel
