17 June 2018

11th Sunday of the Year

We welcome all who are worshipping with us today to our service,
Particularly our newcomers and visitors.
May God bless your encounter with Him.

COLLECT FOR TODAY

Creator God, through your Son you have planted the seeds of the kingdom in us : Give us grace, not to live for ourselves alone, and faith to labour for the harvest of the new creation ; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God in glory everlasting. Amen

Affirmation of Faith

You, O God, are supreme and holy.

You create our world and give us life.

Your purpose overarches everything we do.

You have always been with us.

You are God.

You, O God, are infinitely generous,
good beyond all measure.

You came to us before we came to you.

You have revealed and proved your love for us in Jesus Christ,
who lived and died and rose again.

You are with us now.

You are God.

You, O God, are Holy Spirit.

You empower us to be your gospel in the world.

You reconcile and heal; you overcome death.

You are our God. We worship you

Meditation

“I want to unfold you.
Let no place in me hold itself closed.
Where I am closed, I am false.
I want stay clear in your sight.

These few short lines are from a longer work by Rilke. Although written in his earlier years, the words still contain wisdom for us as we struggle with “change” and all its manifestations. There is ample evidence that in the not too distant future motor vehicles will not need a human driver. In a relatively short time we have moved from the “horseless carriage” to the verge of the “driverless car”. Change is a’coming even in Christian thinking and practice - as vacant pews evidence.

Rilke, in these lines, is addressing God. Each line is worthy of your attention.

It is a gentle meditation which I hope will feed your souls.
