16th Sunday of the Year

We welcome all who are worshipping with us today to our service,
Particularly our newcomers and visitors.
May God bless your encounter with Him.

COLLECT FOR TODAY

O God,

You sent your Son to heal and to bring peace :
Give us the stillness that restores our spirits
And the grace that brings healing :
Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Who lives and reigns with you
And the Holy Spirit,
One God, now and forever. Amen

Dear Saints

Last week we journeyed with Richard Rohr on the True Self. As you would have gleaned from the last two articles, this is, as he mentions in this article, a mature religion.

“Paradoxically, immense humility, not arrogance, characterizes the True Self. You simultaneously know you are a son or daughter of God, but you also know that you didn’t earn it and you are not worthy of it. You know it’s entirely a gift (see Ephesians 2:8-9 and throughout Paul’s writings). All you can do is thank Somebody Else, occasionally weep with joy, and kneel without any hesitation.

The single and true purpose of mature religion is to lead you to ever new experiences of your True Self. If religion does not do this, it is junk religion. Every sacrament, every Bible story, every church service, every sermon, every hymn, every bit of priesthood, ministry, or liturgy is for one purpose: to allow you to experience your True Self—who you are in God and who God is in you—and to live a generous and just life from that Infinite Source.”

We complete this short series with a quote from Julian of Norwich, a fourteenth century anchoress, whose writing has re-emerged for us to delight in her optimism.

She uses the word “one-ed”, to be made one with God.

And then we can do nothing more than gaze at Him
And rejoice with a high mighty desire to be wholly
One-ed with Him,
and to pay attention to His prompting,
and to rejoice in His loving,
and delight in His goodness.

Blessings

G
