Collect for Today

Living God,
 You raise us to fullness of life in Christ;
 Teach us to pray
 And grant us hopeful persistence

 One God, for ever and ever.
 Amen

Beautiful saints planted by God in this place, grace and peace

I am deeply grateful for the time you have given me to go on retreat. I am so aware of the sacrifice this entails not only for my family and friends but also for you whom God has given me to shepherd for this season. Thank you!

I am also deeply aware of the privilege it is to spend 8 full days wrapped in the silence of God. A privilege not many have the opportunity to experience. On the last morning of the retreat, I spent 2 hours contemplating Christ crucified on the cross. And I heard him ask "What more can I do to prove my love to you?" In that moment the words of God recorded in the prophet Jeremiah welled up for me" I know my thoughts towards you, thoughts of good and not of evil, to bless and to prosper, to give you hope and a future."

And so I come away from this retreat even more deeply convicted by Gods great love for us. A love that seeks us out when we are lost, that calls us back when we stray, that binds us up when we are broken hearted and that aims to set us free. Gods love, the depth and breadth and height which is unsearchable. And mercy as the shape when Gods love meets a sinner like me in need.

Jesus says to his disciples "As the Father has loved me so have I loved you. Abide in my love". May this week be filled with the knowledge of God's great and abiding love for you. May you find the time to open yourself to receive this gift of unfailing love. And may this perfect love cast out all fear.

With love and blessings

Revd. Anastasia
